The meeting opened with Jerry leading us in prayer.

The AGENDA was approved as presented.

MINUTES of the February meeting were approved as written.

OLD BUSINESS

HOLY THURSDAY - Thursday, April 5th, 7:00 pm at St. Jude. We reviewed our preparations. The Altar Servers should be at church by 6:00 pm for instructions. The various other Ministers of the Altar, and those participating in Foot Washing, come about 6:30 pm. The three R.C.I.A. participants have been invited to join the twelve from our parishes for the Foot Washing. The 15 chairs will be placed in a straight line along the top step of the Altar.

Each of the Parish Council representatives that attended the Chrism Mass will bring their Parish Holy Oils to present at Mass that evening during the Offeratory procession. After Mass, the Sacristans of Annunciation and St. Joseph will take their Parish Holy Oils and Consecrated Hosts to their churches for Good Friday services.

We discussed removal of items from the sanctuary. The large furniture will stay where they are, except to move the Altar back after removing the Altar Cloth and Corporal. The Presider Chairs and Communion vessels can to put in the Sacristy.

GOOD FRIDAY - Service preparations at each Parish are ready.

EASTER VIGIL - Saturday, April 7th, 8:00 pm. Servers and R.C.I.A. should be there for practice and instructions by 6:30 pm. During the Blessing of Light, the Ushers and Servers will help light the candles for everyone in church.

EASTER SUNDAY - April 8th Masses are:

8:00 am at Annunciation, St. Joseph, and St. Jude
10:00 am at Annunciation, St. Joseph, and St. Jude

NEW BUSINESS

MINISTRY FAIR - Role descriptions for each of the Ministries about what you do for your parish and what it involves is needed for the Ministry Fair scheduled May 5th and 6th at each parish.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS - St. Jude / 50th, Annunciation / 75th
It was decided the Worship Commission will help plan liturgies after St. Jude and Annunciation Anniversary Committees have scheduled dates and made plans for these wonderful celebrations. Are there planning committees formed yet at either parish?

PENTECOST - Sunday, May 27th. We discussed what we might do for Pentecost at our Parishes. Jeannine will order "Dove" prayer cards for the Tri-Parishes. Further discussion next month.

NEXT MEETING is Tuesday, May 1st, 6:30 pm, St. Jude Classroom.
