

MARCH 2007
ADULT FAITH FORMATION
COMMISSION REPORT

April 3, 2007
Sr. Pat Clement

- The Mission feedback was extremely positive. Those who attended recommended that we invite Fr. Kratz back again next year. They liked his message and his sense of humor. Others were particularly touched by the words of comfort his message gave them. All felt the profound impact of the closing healing service on Thursday. THANK YOU to all who worked to make the program so successful. Due to hard work, contributions, and donations the cost of the mission was almost totally covered without having to use much budget money.
- Ann Froelich and I will be offering a New Hope Grief session beginning April 17 and running through May 22. These sessions will run from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday afternoons. St. Matthew's will offer an evening session from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. on the same dates: April 17, 24 and May 8, 15, and 22.
- Julianne Dolon is willing to offer a coffee/discussion night (or two) this spring. Dates and times still need to be finalized. Perhaps we can do that during the meeting.
- Summer trip options are being researched.
- We have 3 young people who will be coming into full communion with the Church at the Easter Vigil. Jacob LaCount will be baptized, confirmed, and will receive Holy Communion and Clifton Devroy will be confirmed and receive his first Communion. Dana Daul will be confirmed.
- Nicole Lewis just registered for St. Joseph's Parish and would like to be confirmed on May 20 at the Cathedral Diocesan Confirmation Mass and ceremony.
- Bible Study is still going well. Due to the volume of work to prepare for each session, we will be going to every other week for sessions from now until June.
